COURT RULING

Defendant in Court, speaks English.

A.H. Badawi for the prosecution.

A. M. Danbaba for the defendant.

I, have considered the plea on behalf of the convict and the grounds thereto, however, the offence for which he was sentenced is on the raise more among young persons.

It is important we collectively raise to the challenge in staying the trend in such offences, our tertiary institution and law enforcement agencies must be collective in re-orienting students on the dangers and implication of mis-use of technology in the commission of all sorts of crimes.

Be that as it may, I find it expedient to grant the convict an option of fine, he is hereby sentenced to a fine of #100,000 and in lieu he shall served a term of 6 months. The instrument sought for the offence is hereby forfeited to the Federal Government.
