MOH'D-On behalf of the convict we urge the court to temper justice with mercy as he is remorseful that he will not commit the offence again. He promise to be a good citizen of the country. We urge you to be

UGBE- The prosecution agrees with the defendant for leniency as the convict is a first time offender and he co-operated fully in the investigation of the case.

However, we humbly apply for the forfeiture of the defendant Iphone 14 which was used in the commission of the crime.

COURT- I have listened to the submission of the counsel representing the convict and pleading for leniency in sentencing the convict. I also heard the prosecution response to same.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE

In consideration of the plea of leniency I hereby sentenced you EMMANUEL SHAMMAL to Eight Months imprisonment without option of fine under section 324 of the penal code law.

I decline the option of fine because of the prevalence in our society the type of offence committed by the convict creating unnecessary hardship to the victims of the crime.

The convict shall also forfeit his Iphone 14 to used in the commission of the crime to the Federal Republic of Nigeria.
